AT THE MOVIES

Behind the scenes at D-W High provided action, drama, adventure, and comedy for all who were involved. Lifesavers provided Lock-in II and sponsored Red Ribbon Week. Pack The Place III was held on January twenty-six during homecoming week. We had two new teachers join the crew this year, Miss Finlin and Mrs. Huston. On a last note, perhaps the most important sequel of the year, was Baby Boom II starring Mrs. Ray. Tune in next year for the exciting conclusion of "D-W, At The Movies"

LOOK WHO'S

Maybe this page should have been entitled "Look who's not talking!" Everyone remembers their first day as a freshman. When asking a senior about their first day, the reply was "I was so scared I thought I would be sick!" But these guys came around and made great contributions to our high school, such as the traditional cake raffles at the basketball games, bake sales, etc. Just remember, only three years left until graduation!

DRIVE

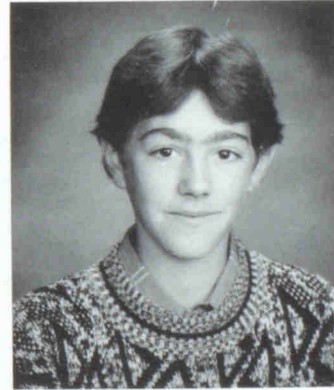

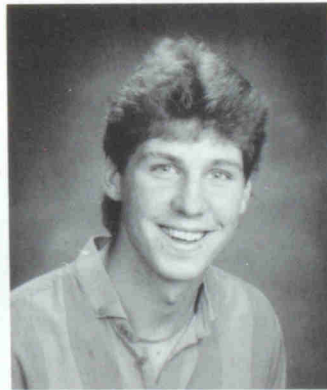

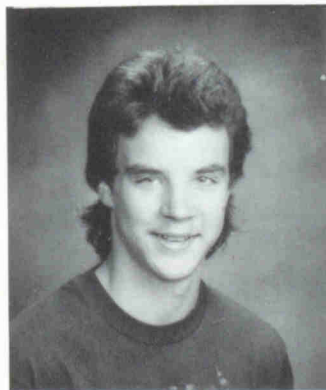

The Sophomore class had an extremely busy year. Fund raisers included various bake sales and selling Beich's candy. Learning the rules of the road to get their "License to Drive" was on all of the Sophomore's minds this year! WARNING!! Stay off the sidewalks!!!!!!

The Junior's main project was to organize the Junior/Senior Prom. Most of the class got involved by finding a place appropriate for prom, choosing the colors, and choosing the song. But with all of this going on, they still had some "free time" to actively participate in many extra-curricular activities. Juniors are concerned also with finishing their Senior year at DeLand-Weldon and planning their futures.

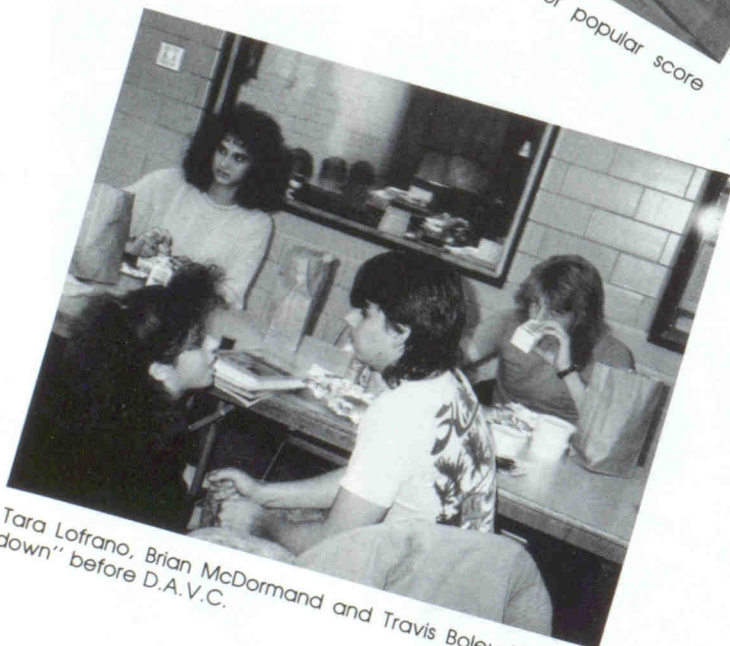

Nathan Richards caught by surprise.

Courtney Hall and Alicia Francis getting ready for the next class.

Shannon Seal fixing the ever popular score board.

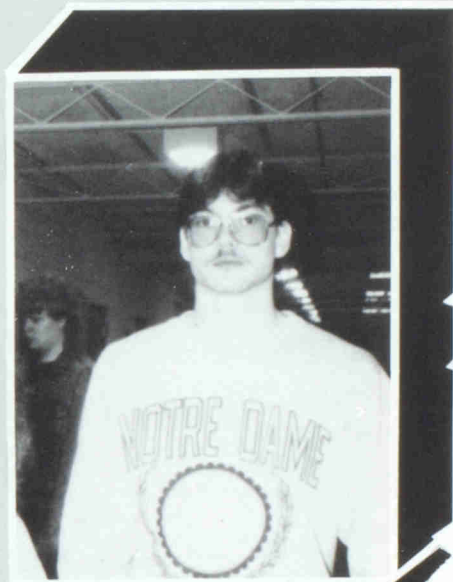

Tara Lofrano, Brian McDormand and Travis Boley "chowin' down" before D.A.V.C.

CLASS
'90

Well, this is it — the last year the Class of 1990 will grace the halls of DeLand-Weldon High School. Over the past four years we've accomplished a lot; we got our licenses, sold everything from candy to pizzas, and organized a terrific prom.

We would also like to thank the teachers and parents who have supported and encouraged us over the years. We appreciate everything you've done for us.

As we go our separate ways, when you look back at the years we spent together, we hope you'll smile and laugh at all the good times we've had.

BEST OF LUCK

AMBITIONS: My ambitions are quite modest. In 1997, at the age of 25, I will assume complete power of the United States. I will be called Caesar Wilke by the people or they will be shot. In 2002, I will invade and conquer the entire Western Hemisphere. It will be a flawless plan because I am a genius. I will rename every capital city Wilkeville. In 2007 I will invade Europe. The ever gullable Europeans will regret giving me the Nobel Peace Prize in 2004. With my God-like generalmanship, I will over-run all of Europe to the Volga River in Russia. The Pittiful Mikhail Gorbachev will beg for a peace treaty in 2008. I will then laugh in his face. I will begin a great offense against Russia in 2009 with my loyal allies, Tibet and Pakistan. Seeing the hopelessness of the situation, all the rest of the world will bow and kiss my feet. I will rule until 2069. I will be the greatest ruler in History and will be loved by all.

Roy Lee Wrightson — "Royster"

ACTIVITIES: D.A.V.C. 3, Baseball 1-3 INTERESTS: Having fun, being with friends, Girls, fast cars and shooting pool. AMBITIONS: Going into the army after I graduate. MEMORABLE MOMENT: Graduating from Middle School.

LETTERMAN'S CLUB

Wait! Aren't these supposed to be Letterman's Club pictures? Yes — they are supposed to be — but we regret to say that they have been misplaced. We're very sorry. The club was very successful in their annual Letterman's Club Carnival this year. Games, cake walks, and the jail provided fun for all ages. To be in the Letterman's Club, you must letter in a sport. So, here are some pictures of sporting events that enabled athletes to become members.

D-W sports wouldn't be complete without "The Crowd".

Warm ups are essential!

What event now Coach?

Let's win!

LIFESAVERS

This year's Lifesavers did many different "drug prevention" projects during the 1989-90 school year. They got the entire school to participate in the National Red Ribbon Campaign during the week of October 22-29. The theme of the campaign was "My Choice . . . Drug Free", and its purpose was to present a unified and visible commitment toward the creation of a Drug-Free America. The group also sponsored a High-School lock-in where there were movies, games, swimming and lots of fun. There was also a lock-in where the Junior High shared in all of the same kinds of activities. On Pack the Place night the organization held a raffle of a AM/FM cassette player.

Maybe this isn't Indiana Hoosier Basketball, but just like the movie, we're a small school team striving to be the best we can be. The Eagles led by Head Coach Karl Parrish, and Assistant Coach Doug Huisinga, flew to a 3 and 3 record early in the season and ended with an 8 and 16 record. With only one starter returning from the previous season, the Eagles worked together to be a winning team. Comments from Coach Parrish on the 1989-90 season were: "It was a season of ups and downs. If there was a season for bitter sweet losses, this was it. We played some very decent teams right down to the final buzzer. We lost six or seven basketball games by five points or less. When you have to endure those kinds of defeats, they begin to take their toll on a team's emotions. If I could summarize this basketball team's attitude in one phrase, it would be, 'this ball club was a club of no quitters'. The kids gave great efforts, countless times."

RUTHLESS PEOPLE

CHEERLEADING

The cheerleaders were sponsored this year by Gina Leischner. They sponsored Homecoming Week with days like "Twins Day, Maroon and Grey Day, Hats and Sunglasses Day, and the ever famous Slave Day! They helped build spirits for our second pack the place night, which was attended by over 800 people. Good job girls.

DIRTY DANCING

The 1989-90 Pom-Pon squad, with their new sponsor, Marty Forrest, had a fun but busy year. They performed at nine home basketball games, the Clinton Holiday Tournament, and held a clinic for grades K-5.

GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH

The final bow — Jane Nixon, Alicia Francis, Shannon Seal, Chad Case, Brian Allen, Audra Lofrano, Lonny Goble

The '89-'90 high school play entitled "The Crazy Paper Caper" was a huge success. Under the direction of Miss Kidd, the cast and crew worked many hours in preparation for the "big night." The play filled with suspense and humor provided entertainment for all who attended to see the performance.

THE ACADEMY AWARDS

These two pages were supposed to be "The Academy Awards" but we regret to say the pictures were misplaced. We are very sorry for the inconvenience. These pages were to display the winners of the music contest, DAR/SAR, Boys and Girls Physical Fitness Awards, Perfect Attendance, Student Council Athlete's of the Year, Girls and Boys State, Math Contest, Typing Awards, and Ag Awards. We have included pictures for you to view the year at a glance. Once again we're very sorry.

HOMECOMING 1989-90

Homecoming '90 was a huge success. It all started the week of January 22. The cheerleaders led the week's festivities. Such events were Western Day, Twin Day, Slave Day, Maroon and Grey Day and Game Day. On January 26, our basketball team played the Tri-Valley Trojans. On Saturday, January 27 at 7:30, Grand March was held. This year's King and Queen, Angie Polen and Todd Smith were crowned by last year's Queen Kimberly Hogan. The M.C.'s for the evening were Gala Olson and Jane Nixon. The theme song for the evening was "I Remember You" by Skid Row. The colors for the evening were emerald green and silver. This will be a night we'll never forget.

ROMANCING THE STONE

PROM NIGHT

This year the Jr. Sr. Prom was hosted by the Junior Class at Jumers Castle Lodge in Champaign, on May 5, 1990. This years queen was Jill Perkins and king was Brandon Goble. Door prizes were given throughout the evening and fun was had by all.

CONGRATULATIONS GRADS

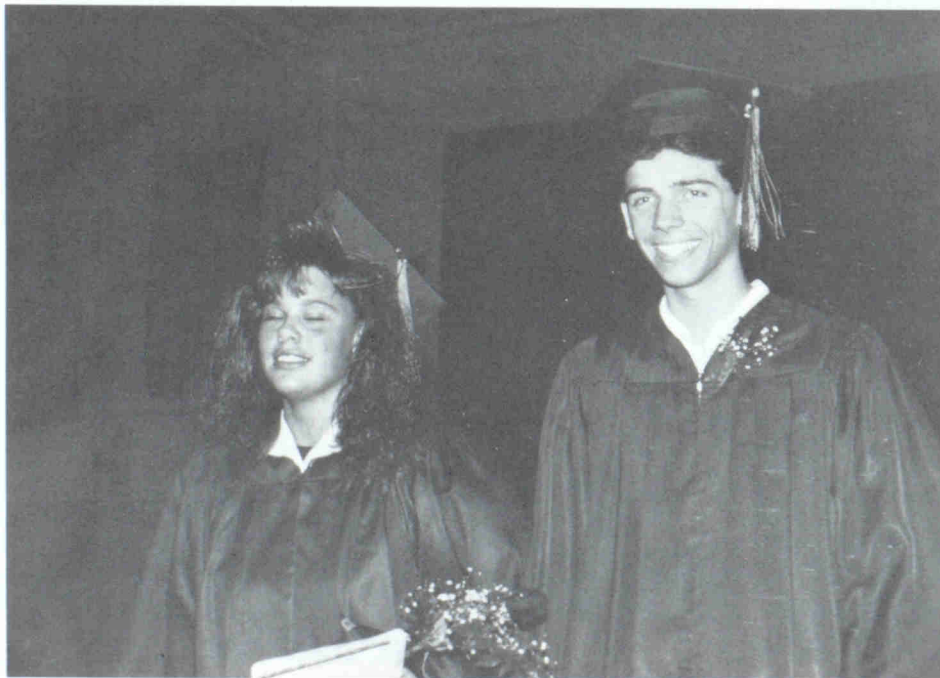

It was a hot evening May 26th, when the seniors became graduates. The Valedictorian, Gala Olson and the Salutatorian, Brandon Goble both gave moving speeches on the beginning of a new decade and the benefits of coming from a small school.

An old tradition moved aside during the commencement session for the 1990 Graduates. Rather than the usual "pomp and circumstance" the Seniors chose "Small Town" by John Cougar Mellenkamp.

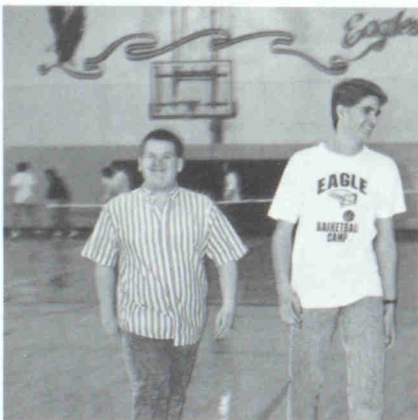

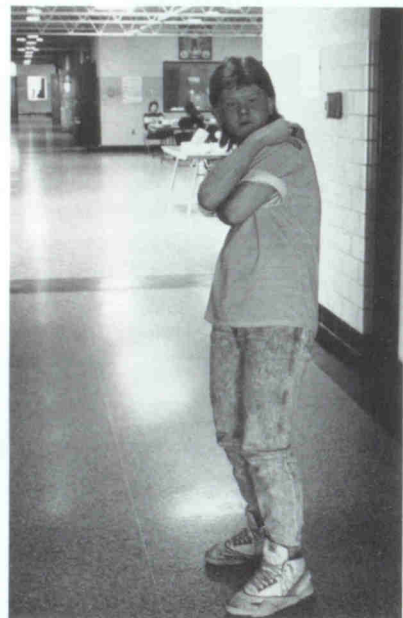

YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU

Looking back over the '89-'90 school year, we remember a lot of good times and some bad that will be in our memories forever. Long after our high school days are over, we'll be able to reflect back to those good 'ole days when our responsibilities were few and our fun times many. We would like to extend a sincere Thank You to our advisor Jeanne Lawrence and to our staff. We couldn't have made it without you!

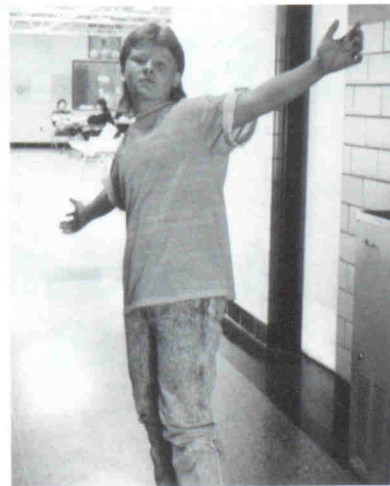

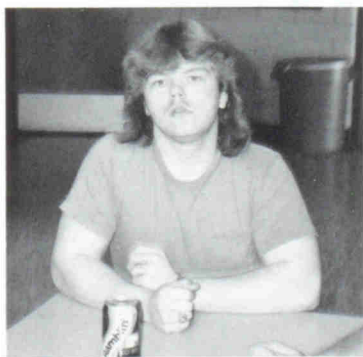

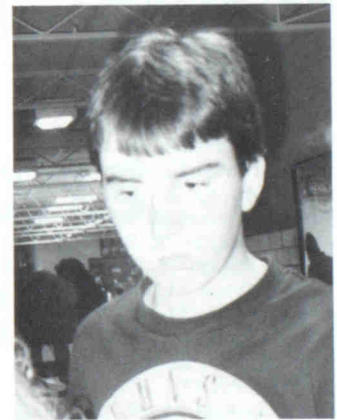

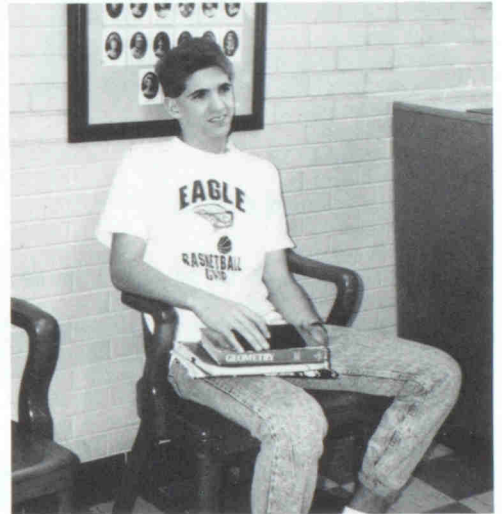

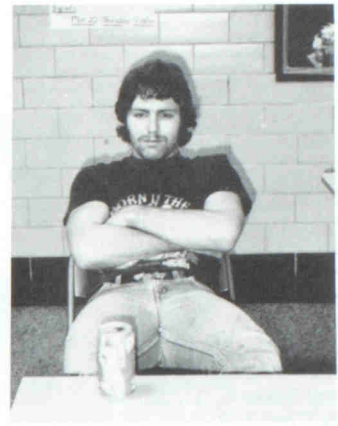

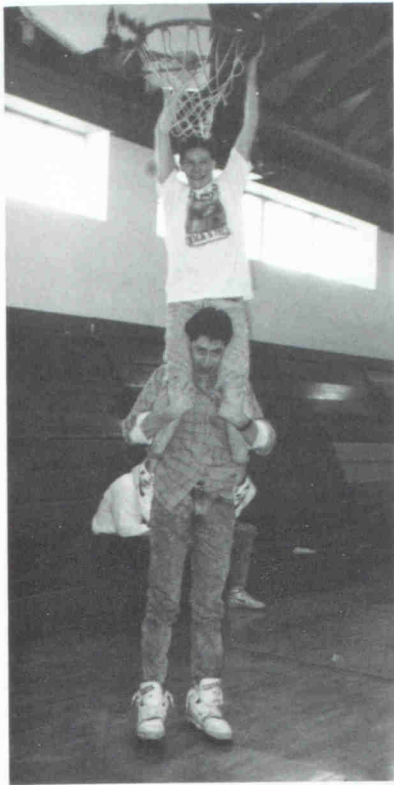

Sincerely,

Gala and Wendy
